Eco-Friendly Business GREENMark

Approved Business Programme

If you believe that your business operates sustainably and is inherently environmentally responsible but you are not formally certified or a member of a recognised sustainability programme read on – as we have created a programme for Responsible, Environmentally & Sustainable businesses to get recognised for their actions and to enable them to promote their sustainable approach to potential customers.

Green Hospitality recognises the challenges facing many businesses and understands that environmental certification or membership of another programme may be too costly at present or does not fit within the business model and so, we have developed an approval model designed to support your business in being able to declare that you operate in a sustainable manner.

In time you may wish to apply for certification and this step can position your business for that decision. However, there is no requirement for you to plan for certification – you will make that decision based on market demands and your business needs.

The Eco-Friendly Business GREENMark is a “light” environmental programme that requires you to undertake a number of direct actions that will incorporate sustainability into your day-to-day operation.

All tourism & hospitality businesses that achieve the GREENMark.ie Eco-Friendly Business will be listed within GreenTravel.ie.

We will be asking you to tell us about your business within the following areas;

Being Responsible – why you should be listed within GreenTravel.ie – what makes your business responsible or sustainable? Vision/Plan - what is yours?

Marketing/Communication - how do you communicate your actions/vision/plan to customers and employees – and all stakeholders (Particularly your website information)

Recycling - what steps are you taking Energy – how are you more energy efficient Water – How are you more efficient Waste – how are you minimising waste Regulations – how you are compliant Leave no Trace – implementation/Membership Local Community – your engagement locally Biodiversity – your impact and minimisation and preservations actions.

Not all these areas will be applicable to your business. However, if you are serious about sustainability and have embedded it within your operation answering these questions should be second nature to you.

Our objective is to be as open as we can to businesses that adopt sustainability as a core business concept.
